PRESIDENT: Is there an objection? Seeing none, it is laid over. LB 99. Yes.

SENATOR F. LEWIS: I ask to lay that bill over since there is 11 absent.

PRESIDENT: Is there an objection? There is. LB 99. All right, is there an objection to the laying over of LB 99? Seeing none...yes, there is. LB 99, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, LB 99 was a bill introduced by Senator Frank Lewis of the 45th District. Title read. The bill was originally read on January 6, 1977 and referred to the Revenue Committee. It was considered by the body on February 17th, February 18th, March 11th, April 21st of last year. The bill was advanced to General File. Mr. President, Senator Walter George has the first amendment and I am afraid Senator George is excused. I have others. Mr. President, Senator Warner then moves to amend LB 99, on page 14, line 1, strike "three" and insert "five". That is offered by Senator Warner.

PRESIDENT: Senator Warner.

CLERK: Senator, on page 14 of the bill, line 1.

SENATOR WARNER: Was that what I filed last year?

CLERK: Yes, sir.

SENATOR WARNER: That is obsolete at this point.

CLERK: All right.

SENATOR WARNER: Okay, withdrawn.

CLERK: Mr. President, I have an amendment by Senator Warren Swigart. Mr. President, the next amendment is offered by Senator Simon. Senator Simon moves to amend LB 99 to remove the sales tax on food effective January 1, 1979. Senator Simon asks to withdraw that, Mr. President. Mr. President, the last amendment I have is offered by Senator Walter George who has been excused.

PRESIDENT: Senator Dworak. Senator Frank Lewis.

SENATOR F. LEWIS: I renew my motion, in deference to Senator George, to lay the bill over until Monday. If not, he can put it on on Select File. It doesn't make any difference to me.

PRESIDENT: Okay, there is a motion now to lay the bill over.

SENATOR F. LEWIS: No, I just ask unanimous consent.

PRESIDENT: You renew your request for unanimous consent.

SENATOR F. LEWIS: Senator Fowler left the room.

PRESIDENT: Would the Sergeant at Arms find Senator Fowler? I know you like to be fair. You always say that, Senator.
